After School Clubs & Programs

CultureMachine Music Production Program

Ten 2-hour sessions (up to 10 students) $250 per 2-hour session

The CultureMachine Music Production Program is a comprehensive music production workshop. From concept, songwriting, through recording, mixing, mastering, album design and distribution, students receive hands-on music production experience that allows them to actually create a physical album of their project by the end of the semester. A media literacy program that assists students develop critical discernment skills, specifically concerning explicit messages that appear in today's song lyrics and music videos, is also offered. Our team of professional songwriters/music producers will bring our mobile recording studio into your school, classroom or Community Center and work, write and record with your students right on spot! Examples of student-created music and videos can be seen at www.CultureMachine.com.

Relationship Intelligence Peer Leader Training

In 10 interactive sessions, high school students are trained to be peer leaders who can take a stand for a healthy, confident, addiction-free lifestyle. Students are trained to communicate about their stand for healthy relationships through spoken word, music or the medium of their choice. Students each receive a video DVD of their presentations. This initial 10 session training can be followed by weekly or biweekly sessions throughout the year.

Free Teens Club Meetings

Thirty 2-hour sessions (up to 15 students) $150 per 2-hour session, Relationship Intelligence Student Journal (192 pages) $20 each

After-school Free Teens clubs include discussions, engaging activities and community service. These clubs become a "safe haven" for teens to discuss challenges and pressures they face as they work to build a success-oriented life that includes graduating from high school and college, a rewarding career and fulfilling social and family relationships.
